

The News-Herald.

OFFICE IN POST-OFFICE BUILDING

Entered at Post-Office, Hillsboro, Ohio, as second class matter.

AUGUST 6, 1896

Mart Cravens is suffering badly with rheumatism.

Mrs. W. H. Head is very ill with typhoid fever.

Thos. Hibben, of Columbus, is a guest of friends here.

Miss Kate Reinhold is alarmingly ill with typhoid fever.

Reed Fenner has been prostrated with typhoid fever.

Jacob Feibel and Miss Rosetta are at Mt. Clemens, Mich.

Miss Ida Hoggard, of Chillicothe, is visiting friends here.

John Ervin, of Tuscola, Ill., is a guest of friends in this city.

Will Hiestand is visiting friends in Bournville, Ross county.

Miss Julia Hoffman, of Walnut Hills, is visiting Miss Georgia Sinks.

Miss May Berger, of Fayetteville, is visiting Miss Kate Gorman.

Miss Cora Fenner has returned home, after visiting friends in this city.

Mrs. C. C. Walker and little Hershel have returned from Indianapolis.

Miss Lizzie Coen, of Indianapolis, is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Hiestand.

Miss Elizabeth Burns has returned from a visit among her friends in Chillicothe.

Miss Mary Hill, of West Pullman, Ill., is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. George Fuller.

Mrs. N. A. Murfin has returned from a protracted visit among friends in Minnesota.

Misses Georgia Ellifritz and Kate Shack are enjoying the wonders of Niagara.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drake, of Dayton, Ohio, are guests at the home of Austin Rockhold.

J. H. Littler, of Centerfield, was here Saturday, a guest of his daughter, Mrs. Ami Turner.

Sam Amen, who has been down for over a week with typhoid fever, is reported better.

Dissolved Bone Phosphate $15 a ton and pure bone meal $24.50 a ton, at Jas. Williams'.

Jesse Foly, jr., is nursing a broken arm, the result of too much practice on a horizontal bar.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Guyler are entertaining Misses Nellie and Lena Guyler, of Covington, Ky.

Frank Farren and wife, of New Vienna, were guests at the home of John Sken, last week.

Mrs. James Reese, jr., and her son, Master Harry, are in Columbus, visiting Mrs. Catharine Dyer.

Miss Lulu Maddox will assist the McBride family in a concert, at Greenfield, tomorrow evening.

Mrs. C. S. Bell and Miss May have just returned from a tour of the West, including Yellowstone Park.

In our Belfast correspondence will be found an account of the tragic death of a young man at that place, last week.

Misses Thana and Hattie McConaughy, of Lincoln, Neb., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McConaughy.

John R. Davis arrived at home a few days ago, after an extended business tour. He will leave again in a day or two.

Mrs. Mollie Swigart and her daughter Minnie, of Shinnston, W. Va., are visiting friends and relatives in this county.

Spencer Jones and wife, of Denver, are here, at the bedside of his father, the veteran Wm. Jones, who is very ill.

Notice the call for the Republican County Convention, which will take place next Tuesday. Primaries Saturday.

Miss Anna Parker and Miss Jane Keach are visiting Mrs. J. B. Cowgill, at Swishelm. Mrs. Cowgill is Miss Parker's aunt.

Miss Lizzie Robinson, one of the leading teachers of Lawrence county, is a visitor in our city, the guest of R. E. Neal.

Mrs. Rev. W. W. Trout has returned to her home in Somerset after a visit to her parents, Auditor and Mrs. James Reese.

The gentleman who took a duster and whip from my stable last Saturday, through a mistaken exchange in checks, will save himself considerable embarrassment and trouble by returning the same at once. Thirteen is an unlucky number. HUGH J. REVIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hannaford are entertaining as their guests, Mrs. Susan Brooksbank and her son Virgil, of College Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Zink are enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Will Morrow, of Columbus. Mrs. Morrow is their daughter.

The Scott Dragons will leave next Wednesday for their annual encampment, which will be held this year at Cleveland.

Little Daisy and Master Barney Troutwine, of Lynchburg, are visiting at the home of officer Grant Troutwine, as guests of Miss Lena.

The Stroup reunion will be held on Thursday, August 27. The privileges will be sold August 23d, from two to four o'clock p. m.

Al. Brunner, of the News-Herald typographic force, is visiting friends in Muncie, Ind., where he will remain a couple of weeks or so.

Frank and Katie Sullivan have returned to their home in Cincinnati, after a pleasant visit of several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Carroll.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Wilkin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Igo, were here over Sunday, guests at the home of Willis Woodrow.

Twenty-six young friends of Howard Jeans had a jolly good time helping him celebrate his ninth birthday, on last Wednesday, with a picnic in the woods.

Hon. Henry Vincent, editor of Sound Money, at Massillon, passed through here Monday, enroute to Brown county, where he will enjoy a short visit among relatives.

Mrs. Mary Mahaney, aged 97, died at the home of her son Jerre, in this city, Friday. The funeral services were held from St. Mary's Catholic Church, Monday morning.

John Walker and his sister, Miss Fannie, left yesterday for Colorado Springs, where they expect to remain some time, if the climate there is found to be beneficial to John's health.

Miss Mamie Lloyd, of Mexico, who was recently taken to Christ Hospital, Cincinnati, very seriously ill, has almost recovered, and is now at the Adams County Mineral Springs.

We make our bow to that prince of horticulturists, David Guiselman, for a head of cabbage big enough to fill a half bushel measure and weighing twenty-two pounds. Who can beat it?

There will be a mass convention of the National party at the Court House next Saturday afternoon, beginning at 1:30, to nominate a county ticket. An address will be delivered by Rev. O. M. Sellers.

The annual reunion at Sinking Spring occurred yesterday. It was a great occasion and there were many in attendance. Hon. O. N. Sams delivered a historical address of great interest and value.

Mrs. Rogers, wife of Prof. W. A. Rogers, has returned from Red Sulphur Springs, Va., whither she had accompanied her husband. She brings the glad news that Will is improving in health.

Miss Mary Doggett and her brother, Walter, entertained a merry crowd of young folks, Wednesday evening, in honor of the Misses Rothrock, of Washington C. H., who are the guests at the home of Tim Foley.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. McNarey are here, having been summoned on account of the serious illness of Mrs. W. H. Head, who is Mrs. McNarey's mother. Mrs. Head, we are glad to learn, is much better than she was.

Stock sales were fairly well attended. Forty-two horses and two mules sold at about the same prices as prevailed before. One horse brought $125, and Capt. D. M. Barrett paid $170 for a pair of mules for farm work.

Everybody is hungry for information now on the financial issues. We have devoted the bulk of the space on our inside pages to that subject this week. You'll find meat on that shelf. Don't fail to read every line.

Messrs. Gilwicks and Tracy, young theological students, spoke in behalf of missionary work, at the Presbyterian Church, Sunday morning, afternoon and evening. They are bright young men and are doing effective work.

Mrs. Sarah McCoy, wife of Martin McCoy, died of consumption, at her home in Folsom, Saturday, and was buried at Union, Sunday, Rev. J. A. Long conducting the services. She was forty-six years old, and leaves no children.

G. M. Snodgrass and wife spent last week visiting relatives and friends in Wilmington and vicinity, and while there attended the wedding of their cousin, Chas. Howe, and Miss Emma Mills, which occurred Thursday evening.

There was a terrific storm at Red Oak, Brown county, a week ago last Saturday. It did a great deal of damage, tearing down orchards and forest trees, overturning barns and damaging crops. Fortunately, no one was seriously injured. The track of the storm was about three miles in width.

The firm of Gutridge &amp; Foley has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Gutridge retiring. These gentlemen have established in this city an elegant restaurant, with perhaps no equal in any city of the size in the State. They have won a high position in the esteem and confidence of the people. The dissolution of the firm will be generally regretted, although it will not result in a discontinuance of the business, which Mr. Foley will still carry on with the old time spirit of enterprise and cleverness which have made him and his partner so popular in the past.

A fine relic of the mound builders was plowed up a few days ago on the farm of E. P. Keech. It is a small stone shaped something like a battle ax, with a round hole through the center. It is too small to have been a weapon. But, we are informed by Mr. Jacob Sayler and Hon. O. H. Collins, that it was a "banner stone" such as are supposed to have been used to ornament the points of guidon staffs, by the race who preceded the Indians.

A grand musical treat will be furnished for those who attend the celebration at Sugar-tree Ridge, Aug. 8. The celebrated North Liberty band will discourse sweet music and besides furnishing instrumental music will render us some vocal music also. Miss Clara A. Moore, of New Vienna, will preside at the organ, and will during the day render some solos and give a recitation. Some wee tots will give us some songs which are always enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Maggie McClure and her son Oscar were arrested at their home near Careytown, Monday afternoon, by Marshal Lyle and officer Troutwine, on a charge of using obscene language, and of assault and battery. They have long been a disturbing element in the neighborhood, and are very rough and boisterous, it is said, in their conduct and language. They were bound over to Probate Court in the sum of $50 each. Failing to give bond, they were sent to jail.

The work on the new school house is progressing rapidly. The new structure will be one which our city will always be proud of. It should be said for Messrs. Pence &amp; Guyler that they are making a splendid job of it from the ground up. The work of filling up the lot has advanced till it looks like a different place, and the cost is no greater than it would have been to have excavated for the basement on higher ground. There's ample room for congratulation all round over the success of this educational enterprise.

The firm of Gutridge &amp; Foley has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Gutridge retiring. These gentlemen have established in this city an elegant restaurant, with perhaps no equal in any city of the size in the State. They have won a high position in the esteem and confidence of the people. The dissolution of the firm will be generally regretted, although it will not result in a discontinuance of the business, which Mr. Foley will still carry on with the old time spirit of enterprise and cleverness which have made him and his partner so popular in the past.

The gentleman who took a duster and whip from my stable last Saturday, through a mistaken exchange in checks, will save himself considerable embarrassment and trouble by returning the same at once. Thirteen is an unlucky number. HUGH J. REVIN.

Hon. Geo. Cook, U. S. Pension Examiner, is a visitor in our city. Mr. Cook is one of the youngest in years and oldest in service among the present Examiners. His efficiency has carried him through several administrations, and he is good for several more.

Tuesday evening, July 21, at half past eight o'clock, about twenty-five of the friends and neighbors of G. M. Snodgrass gathered at his home, northeast of town, to remind him of his twenty-third birthday. A pleasant time was enjoyed with plenty of good music.

Mrs. Letha Duncan, aged twenty, died Sunday morning of typhoid fever. She was the wife of Lee Duncan and leaves two little children. She was an excellent lady, and her husband and motherless little ones have the sympathy of all. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon.

Our readers will be pained to learn of Hamer Hussey, the New Vienna livery man, who died of consumption, Thursday morning. He was one of the most widely known and popular men in this part of the State. He was buried Friday evening, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias.

Council held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening. It accepted the new J. M. Hibben addition, transacted some minor business and adjourned until noon August 11, when the bids for the bonds will be opened, if there are any. All the prospective buyers were anxious to know if the bonds would be payable in gold.

We are under obligations to our friend E. P. Worley for samples of his magnificent Early Ohio potatoes. They are the finest formed and best flavored we have ever enjoyed. We understand that Mr. Worley will make a specialty of selling these for seed, and it is to be hoped the result will be a marked improvement in the average quality of our potato crops.

The new Presbyterian Church is rapidly becoming a thing of beauty. There will be no prettier church edifice in Southern Ohio. Among its attractions will be two memorial windows. The Hibben window facing on East Street, will cost $2,000 dollars. The D. J. Fallis memorial window, facing on Main, donated by his daughter, Mrs. Harriet Rogers, of Covington, Ky., will cost $1,500.

Some days ago Charles Emery escaped from the Insane Asylum, at Athens, and returned to his former home near New Market. One of the officials of the institution came on to recapture him. He found Emery and had him in custody. But Emery by some means secured a knife and made such demonstrations that the official had to let him go. He made his escape and is supposed to have gone to Kentucky.

A fine relic of the mound builders was plowed up a few days ago on the farm of E. P. Keech. It is a small stone shaped something like a battle ax, with a round hole through the center. It is too small to have been a weapon. But, we are informed by Mr. Jacob Sayler and Hon. O. H. Collins, that it was a "banner stone" such as are supposed to have been used to ornament the points of guidon staffs, by the race who preceded the Indians.

A grand musical treat will be furnished for those who attend the celebration at Sugar-tree Ridge, Aug. 8. The celebrated North Liberty band will discourse sweet music and besides furnishing instrumental music will render us some vocal music also. Miss Clara A. Moore, of New Vienna, will preside at the organ, and will during the day render some solos and give a recitation. Some wee tots will give us some songs which are always enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Maggie McClure and her son Oscar were arrested at their home near Careytown, Monday afternoon, by Marshal Lyle and officer Troutwine, on a charge of using obscene language, and of assault and battery. They have long been a disturbing element in the neighborhood, and are very rough and boisterous, it is said, in their conduct and language. They were bound over to Probate Court in the sum of $50 each. Failing to give bond, they were sent to jail.

The work on the new school house is progressing rapidly. The new structure will be one which our city will always be proud of. It should be said for Messrs. Pence &amp; Guyler that they are making a splendid job of it from the ground up. The work of filling up the lot has advanced till it looks like a different place, and the cost is no greater than it would have been to have excavated for the basement on higher ground. There's ample room for congratulation all round over the success of this educational enterprise.

The firm of Gutridge &amp; Foley has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Gutridge retiring. These gentlemen have established in this city an elegant restaurant, with perhaps no equal in any city of the size in the State. They have won a high position in the esteem and confidence of the people. The dissolution of the firm will be generally regretted, although it will not result in a discontinuance of the business, which Mr. Foley will still carry on with the old time spirit of enterprise and cleverness which have made him and his partner so popular in the past.

A fine relic of the mound builders was plowed up a few days ago on the farm of E. P. Keech. It is a small stone shaped something like a battle ax, with a round hole through the center. It is too small to have been a weapon. But, we are informed by Mr. Jacob Sayler and Hon. O. H. Collins, that it was a "banner stone" such as are supposed to have been used to ornament the points of guidon staffs, by the race who preceded the Indians.

A grand musical treat will be furnished for those who attend the celebration at Sugar-tree Ridge, Aug. 8. The celebrated North Liberty band will discourse sweet music and besides furnishing instrumental music will render us some vocal music also. Miss Clara A. Moore, of New Vienna, will preside at the organ, and will during the day render some solos and give a recitation. Some wee tots will give us some songs which are always enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Maggie McClure and her son Oscar were arrested at their home near Careytown, Monday afternoon, by Marshal Lyle and officer Troutwine, on a charge of using obscene language, and of assault and battery. They have long been a disturbing element in the neighborhood, and are very rough and boisterous, it is said, in their conduct and language. They were bound over to Probate Court in the sum of $50 each. Failing to give bond, they were sent to jail.

The work on the new school house is progressing rapidly. The new structure will be one which our city will always be proud of. It should be said for Messrs. Pence &amp; Guyler that they are making a splendid job of it from the ground up. The work of filling up the lot has advanced till it looks like a different place, and the cost is no greater than it would have been to have excavated for the basement on higher ground. There's ample room for congratulation all round over the success of this educational enterprise.

The firm of Gutridge &amp; Foley has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Gutridge retiring. These gentlemen have established in this city an elegant restaurant, with perhaps no equal in any city of the size in the State. They have won a high position in the esteem and confidence of the people. The dissolution of the firm will be generally regretted, although it will not result in a discontinuance of the business, which Mr. Foley will still carry on with the old time spirit of enterprise and cleverness which have made him and his partner so popular in the past.

A fine relic of the mound builders was plowed up a few days ago on the farm of E. P. Keech. It is a small stone shaped something like a battle ax, with a round hole through the center. It is too small to have been a weapon. But, we are informed by Mr. Jacob Sayler and Hon. O. H. Collins, that it was a "banner stone" such as are supposed to have been used to ornament the points of guidon staffs, by the race who preceded the Indians.

A grand musical treat will be furnished for those who attend the celebration at Sugar-tree Ridge, Aug. 8. The celebrated North Liberty band will discourse sweet music and besides furnishing instrumental music will render us some vocal music also. Miss Clara A. Moore, of New Vienna, will preside at the organ, and will during the day render some solos and give a recitation. Some wee tots will give us some songs which are always enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Maggie McClure and her son Oscar were arrested at their home near Careytown, Monday afternoon, by Marshal Lyle and officer Troutwine, on a charge of using obscene language, and of assault and battery. They have long been a disturbing element in the neighborhood, and are very rough and boisterous, it is said, in their conduct and language. They were bound over to Probate Court in the sum of $50 each. Failing to give bond, they were sent to jail.

The work on the new school house is progressing rapidly. The new structure will be one which our city will always be proud of. It should be said for Messrs. Pence &amp; Guyler that they are making a splendid job of it from the ground up. The work of filling up the lot has advanced till it looks like a different place, and the cost is no greater than it would have been to have excavated for the basement on higher ground. There's ample room for congratulation all round over the success of this educational enterprise.

The firm of Gutridge &amp; Foley has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Gutridge retiring. These gentlemen have established in this city an elegant restaurant, with perhaps no equal in any city of the size in the State. They have won a high position in the esteem and confidence of the people. The dissolution of the firm will be generally regretted, although it will not result in a discontinuance of the business, which Mr. Foley will still carry on with the old time spirit of enterprise and cleverness which have made him and his partner so popular in the past.

A fine relic of the mound builders was plowed up a few days ago on the farm of E. P. Keech. It is a small stone shaped something like a battle ax, with a round hole through the center. It is too small to have been a weapon. But, we are informed by Mr. Jacob Sayler and Hon. O. H. Collins, that it was a "banner stone" such as are supposed to have been used to ornament the points of guidon staffs, by the race who preceded the Indians.

A grand musical treat will be furnished for those who attend the celebration at Sugar-tree Ridge, Aug. 8. The celebrated North Liberty band will discourse sweet music and besides furnishing instrumental music will render us some vocal music also. Miss Clara A. Moore, of New Vienna, will preside at the organ, and will during the day render some solos and give a recitation. Some wee tots will give us some songs which are always enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Maggie McClure and her son Oscar were arrested at their home near Careytown, Monday afternoon, by Marshal Lyle and officer Troutwine, on a charge of using obscene language, and of assault and battery. They have long been a disturbing element in the neighborhood, and are very rough and boisterous, it is said, in their conduct and language. They were bound over to Probate Court in the sum of $50 each. Failing to give bond, they were sent to jail.

The work on the new school house is progressing rapidly. The new structure will be one which our city will always be proud of. It should be said for Messrs. Pence &amp; Guyler that they are making a splendid job of it from the ground up. The work of filling up the lot has advanced till it looks like a different place, and the cost is no greater than it would have been to have excavated for the basement on higher ground. There's ample room for congratulation all round over the success of this educational enterprise.

The firm of Gutridge &amp; Foley has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Gutridge retiring. These gentlemen have established in this city an elegant restaurant, with perhaps no equal in any city of the size in the State. They have won a high position in the esteem and confidence of the people. The dissolution of the firm will be generally regretted, although it will not result in a discontinuance of the business, which Mr. Foley will still carry on with the old time spirit of enterprise and cleverness which have made him and his partner so popular in the past.

A fine relic of the mound builders was plowed up a few days ago on the farm of E. P. Keech. It is a small stone shaped something like a battle ax, with a round hole through the center. It is too small to have been a weapon. But, we are informed by Mr. Jacob Sayler and Hon. O. H. Collins, that it was a "banner stone" such as are supposed to have been used to ornament the points of guidon staffs, by the race who preceded the Indians.

A grand musical treat will be furnished for those who attend the celebration at Sugar-tree Ridge, Aug. 8. The celebrated North Liberty band will discourse sweet music and besides furnishing instrumental music will render us some vocal music also. Miss Clara A. Moore, of New Vienna, will preside at the organ, and will during the day render some solos and give a recitation. Some wee tots will give us some songs which are always enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Maggie McClure and her son Oscar were arrested at their home near Careytown, Monday afternoon, by Marshal Lyle and officer Troutwine, on a charge of using obscene language, and of assault and battery. They have long been a disturbing element in the neighborhood, and are very rough and boisterous, it is said, in their conduct and language. They were bound over to Probate Court in the sum of $50 each. Failing to give bond, they were sent to jail.

The work on the new school house is progressing rapidly. The new structure will be one which our city will always be proud of. It should be said for Messrs. Pence &amp; Guyler that they are making a splendid job of it from the ground up. The work of filling up the lot has advanced till it looks like a different place, and the cost is no greater than it would have been to have excavated for the basement on higher ground. There's ample room for congratulation all round over the success of this educational enterprise.

The firm of Gutridge &amp; Foley has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Gutridge retiring. These gentlemen have established in this city an elegant restaurant, with perhaps no equal in any city of the size in the State. They have won a high position in the esteem and confidence of the people. The dissolution of the firm will be generally regretted, although it will not result in a discontinuance of the business, which Mr. Foley will still carry on with the old time spirit of enterprise and cleverness which have made him and his partner so popular in the past.

"FEW SAINTS" REST.

A Popular Camp at The Point, last Week.

A more merry and happy set of campers never graced the banks of historic Rocky Fork and Paint creeks by their presence than the camp of "Few Saints" that took possession of the cottages at the Point July 29th, and was christened, with water only, in the name given above. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Mary Martin, of Circleville, an excellent lady, and consisted of the following other persons:

Misses Mary Wood, Drusie Heiskell and Messrs. Clifford Heiskell, Wm. P. Heiskell and Charles Radcliff, of Williamsport, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence T. Heiskell, of Greenfield, Miss Tabitha Yates, of Columbus, Mr. Frank Pugsley and Miss Mary Pugsley, of South Charleston, Dr. D. M. Barre, of Dayton, Misses Gertrude and Edith Gardner, of Washington C. H., and Miss Elizabeth Martin, of Circleville. For ten days this crowd had complete control of the hills, the roads, the beautiful gorges and a dozen other objects of interest that the visiting stranger at the Highland County Caves never forgets.

During their stay the party entertained the following friends: Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Ketchum, Mr. and Mrs. John Conard, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Patton and Dr. and Mrs. Glenn and families, Miss Elizabeth, Madge and Hattie Chaney, Etta Hoyt, Florence Harsha, Lida Shack, Mrs. Marie Jones, Messrs. Fred Chaney, D. Q. Morrow and Geo. W. Barrere Jr., of Hillsboro, Mrs. Mattie Ayres and daughter, Margery, of Chicago, Mr. Lee Des Martin and wife, of Chillicothe, Messrs. Jack Myers and M. M. McCafferty, of Lexington, Ky., and Mr. Will Chaney, of Cincinnati.

The crowd and a large number of visitors from Bainbridge and vicinity were entertained and delighted on Friday evening with excellent music by Miss Edith Gardner, whose sweet voice never fails to please, Miss Elizabeth Martin, Circleville's Daughter of Song, and Mr. Will Chaney, who always sustains his high reputation as a singer. They also enjoyed a delightful serenade on Sunday night for which they are indebted to three young gentlemen from Bainbridge.

In fact, every moment was enjoyed and every hour had new pleasures in store for those who were so fortunate as to be members of this camp. From Lover's Rock, where the fair Indian maiden dashed herself to death over the awful precipice at sight of the dying warrior whose bride she was soon to have been, to the spot where the sunlight flashes on the water as it foams and plunges over the Falls of Paint creek, every spot was explored, and by the aid of a kodak in the skillful hands of Miss Gertrude Gardner, many beautiful views were obtained.

The camp broke up on Monday morning with the benediction song, old, but sweet and appropriate, "God be with you till we meet again." And the tender memories of the happy time spent in Camp "Few Saints" will cling and cluster around the hearts of all like the hanging wild vines are clinging to the high rocks against which the waters of Rocky Fork have beaten since earliest time.

Rev. J. P. Currin will preach at the Bellevue camp meeting, near Belfast, Sunday afternoon and evening. Those who have heard Mr. Currin will need no further persuasion to attend. Those who have not should make all their arrangements to be there. It will more than repay any inconvenience they may undergo. Rev. W. T. Boice, of Indianapolis, an eloquent divine will preach Saturday evening and Sunday morning. This camp meeting will be a feast for the soul, all the way through.

Harley Smith, a son of Tom Smith, met with a very serious accident Sunday night. He and Fay Holmes were returning in a buggy from the Sabina camp meeting. When just beyond New Lexington, the horse became frightened and ran away. The vehicle was upset and the occupants thrown out. Smith's shoulder was dislocated. He was taken to his home, near Careytown, where Drs. W. H. Shepherd, T. B. Holmes and W. H. Hoyt, of this city, and Dr. Judkins, of New Lexington, soon arrived. They had quite a task to adjust the displaced joint. Smith is now doing very well.

Everyone has read with horror the recent butcheries of the Armenians by the Turks. And yet, I suspect few of us are at all familiar with the Armenians or know much of them. Mr. Wm. F. Pierce, President of Kenyon College, Gambier, O., will deliver a lecture in the Court House, Wednesday, August 12, on the Armenian Church, for the benefit of St. Mary's P. E. Church. Let everyone take advantage of this opportunity to familiarize himself with the Armenians and their belief. Although I have never heard President Pierce's lecture on The Armenian Church, yet I have heard him speak, and bespeak a very enjoyable evening to all who shall be fortunate enough to hear him; and judging from the enthusiastic comments by such men as H. W. Jones, D. D., Dean of Kenyon Theological Seminary, and Prof. Chas. L. Fischer, D. D., and many others, both of the Seminary and College, those who do not hear him will miss a rare treat, from both a literary and oratorical standpoint. L. M. IDELMAN.

MISS MARGARET BARRERE

Called Suddenly from her Home on Earth to her Home in Heaven.

Some two weeks since, Miss Barrere went to a Cincinnati hospital to undergo a surgical operation. She rallied well from the trying ordeal, and her friends were delighted at the splendid prospects of her speedy recovery. There was a wide and kindly interest in her welfare, and it was with a thrill of unfeigned sorrow we heard, on Monday morning, of her sudden relapse and death the night before.

The remains were brought home Monday evening, and the funeral took place at her late home, the residence of her brother, Col. G. W. Barrere, Tuesday afternoon. The services were remarkably beautiful and impressive. Rev. Dr. T. H. Pearne led in a touching prayer. The sermon by Rev. Heber D. Ketcham was eloquent, appropriate and affecting. Mrs. T. H. Pearne spoke of her dear friend in words of tender love. Miss Grace Gardner sang a solo with such sweet pathos that all hearts were melted, and every eye a fountain of tears.

All that was mortal of Margaret Barrere has been laid to rest under Oak-lawn's velvet sod.

To our sight the story of a beautiful life has closed. Finished are the pages written so fair. Finished, but not taken from us—ours still, for memory's perusal. How precious those pages are! What glad inspiration they bear—what a revelation of clear mentality, Christian kindness, sweet, womanly courage and loyal devotion to her friends and her God! What a wealth of helpfulness, what a world of hope in that noble life! How happy for us, if, when the days of our earthly sojourn are ended, we may meet her again.

In those everlasting gardens Where angels walk and seraphs are the wardens, Where every flower brought safe through death's dark portal Becomes immortal!

The following brief sketch was read at the funeral:

Margaret, daughter of Hon. John M. and Margaret Morrow Barrere, was born in New Market January 14th, 1838, and died in Cincinnati August 24, 1896.

The beautifully rounded character of Miss Barrere is that of a woman nobly planned. Her dignified bearing, kindly manner, modest self-poise, indicated the rare moral integrity and innate refinement—developed in the atmosphere of a Christian home which made this self-sacrificing daughter its good genius and the joy and comfort of her aged parents. In the family of her brother, Col. G. W. Barrere, whose loyal affection accorded her no second place, her care of the little ones, at one time motherless, and in all the exigencies of family life, she was unfailing in her intelligent, affectionate ministry. In the large circle of relatives, and in the community where so large a part of her life was spent, "None knew her but to love her, None named her but to praise."

In early life she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. To its interests she was devoted, in its observances she gained strength, and to its support she gave generously of her means.

A member of a household where lingered sad memories of chairs made vacant by the war of the rebellion, it was but natural the organization in later times of the Woman's Relief Corps enlisted her active interest, and that she was in the front in administering its sacred benedictions.

For some months Miss Barrere's health was a matter of solitude, but only within a few weeks had the real danger been apparent.

Temporarily away from the home, for whose inmates her last hours were filled with affectionate longing, attended by a much loved young relative, the end came. Good took her. "And has it come so speedily—the hour for rest? Am I no more to bear life's anxious burden? May I so quickly claim Faith's royal pardon? Thy way is best."

God of Life, God of Death, God the maker and the slayer, Tell us why the roses wither? Why the breeze that wanders hither Seems to sigh—It is born But to die?

Mary Gertrude Stevenson, member and President of the Clavier Club, having entered into the rest appointed for the children of God, we, as her associate members, wish to express to her family and intimate friends our sorrow and sympathy.

The Club has lost chords and tones no other hand can supply. A distinct presence, whose enthusiasm cheered and helped us.

Lastly we recognize what we can not understand, and would write on the sands of time—

"Sleep after toils," says the stone That keeps you remembered of men, "Port after stormy seas, Ease after wars," so we kneel, Not praying, but saying Amen!

MARGARET FERRIS, Vice Pres. MARY FULLERTON, Sec.

Vocal Instruction.

Miss Grace Gardner will spend this summer in Hillsboro, and all who wish to take a course of vocal instruction of her can do so. Terms reasonable.

Miss Gardner will resume her concert singing and teaching in New York in autumn.

Say! To insure a soft and smooth skin, use Shepherd's Salve.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FOR RENT—Pleasant rooms, with or without board. Address P. O. Box 604, Hillsboro, O